EXPLANATORY NOTES TO THE PROXY FORM:

1. Only holders of Ordinary Shares, or their duly appointed representatives, are entitled to attend, speak and vote at the meeting provided that all calls due from him/her in respect of his/her Ordinary Shares have been paid. A member so entitled may appoint one or more proxies to attend, speak and vote instead of him. The proxy need not be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. However, given the current restrictions on attendance, members are strongly encouraged to appoint the Chairman of the meeting to act as their proxy, as any other named person will not be permitted to attend the meeting.
2. You may appoint one or more proxies provided each proxy is appointed to exercise rights attached to different Ordinary Shares. You may not appoint more than one proxy to exercise rights attached to any one Ordinary Share. If you require any proxy, other than the Chairman of the AGM, delete the words "the Chairman of the Meeting or", add the name of the proxy you wish to appoint and initial the alteration. However, you are strongly encouraged to appoint the Chairman of the AGM to act as your proxy as any other named person will not be permitted to attend the meeting, given the current restrictions on attendance. The proxy need not be a member of the Company and is entitled to speak and vote on any other business which may properly come before the meeting. If the proxy is being appointed in relation to less than your full voting entitlement, please enter in the box next to the proxy holder's name the number of Ordinary Shares in relation to which he or she is authorised to act as your proxy. If left blank your proxy will be deemed to be authorised in respect of your full voting entitlement.

3. To allow effective constitution of the meeting, if it is apparent to the Chairman of the AGM that no shareholders will be present in person or by proxy, other than by proxy in the Chairman of the AGM's favour, then the Chairman of the AGM may appoint a substitute to act in his stead for any shareholder, provided that such substitute proxy shall vote on the same basis as the Chairman of the AGM.
4. On a vote on a show of hands, each proxy has one vote. If a proxy is appointed by more than one shareholder, and all such shareholders have instructed the proxy to vote in the same way, the proxy will only be entitled, on a show of hands, to vote "for" or "against" as applicable. If a proxy is appointed by more than one shareholder, but such shareholders have given different voting instructions, the proxy may, on a show of hands, vote both "for", and "against" in order to reflect the different voting instructions.
5. To change your proxy instructions simply submit a new Form of Proxy using the methods set out above.
6. The "Vote Withheld" option on the Form of Proxy is provided to enable you to abstain on any particular resolution. However, a vote withheld is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of votes "For" and "Against" a resolution.
7. A corporation must execute the Form of Proxy under its common seal or by the hand of a duly authorised officer or attorney or any other person authorised to sign on its behalf.
8. In the case of joint holders, where more than one of the joint holders purports to appoint a proxy, only the appointment submitted by the most senior holder will be accepted. Seniority is determined by the order in which the names of the joint holders appear in the register of members in respect of the joint holding (the first-named being the most senior).
9. If this Form of Proxy is returned without any indication as to how the person appointed proxy shall vote, he/she will exercise his/her discretion as to how he/she votes or whether he/she abstains from voting.
10. To be effective, the instrument appointing a proxy (together with any power of attorney or other authority under which it is executed or a duly certified copy of such power) must be sent to Computershare Investor Services (Guernsey) Limited c/o The Pavillions, Bridgwater Road, Bristol, BS99 6ZY, no later than 10.00 a.m. (UK time) on 28 October 2021. Completion and return of a Form of Proxy will not preclude a member from attending, speaking and voting in person at the meeting. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the meeting in person, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.
11. To have the right to attend and vote at the AGM (and also for the purposes of calculating how many votes a member may cast on a poll) you must first have your name entered on the register of members not later than 6.00 p.m. on 28 October 2021. Changes to entries in the register after that time shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any member to attend and vote at the meeting.
12. CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy or proxies by utilising the CREST electronic proxy appointment service may do so for the Annual General Meeting to be held on 1 November 2021 and any adjournment(s) thereof by utilising the procedures described in the CREST Manual. CREST Personal Members or other CREST sponsored members, and those CREST members who have appointed a voting service provider(s), should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.
